

Dr. G. N. GUTHRIE, Jr.

DENTIST

All Work is Fully Guaranteed

Gibson Building, Down Stairs
Phone at Office and Residence

COOKEVILLE, - TENN.

Tennessee Central R. R.

Passenger Train Schedule at Cookeville

WEST BOUND	EAST BOUND
No. 1. 3:28 p.m.	No. 2. 12:13 p.m.
No. 3. 2:50 a.m.	No. 4. 1:07 a.m.
No. 5. 6:30 a.m.	No. 6. 7:59 p.m.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

J. D. Pistole of Sparta R. 7 was among our callers today.

Howard Farley of Newark is in the city to day on business.

Mrs. J. T. Snodgrass returned to her home in Crossville on Tuesday.

Mrs. C. A. Douglass of Lebanon visited in Cookeville the first of the week.

O. P. McGlasson of Routh 1 was a pleasant caller at this office on Monday.

Billy Webster of Route 2 left for Ada, Okla., the last Saturday in January.

Buy your seed oats from Brogdon, Wirt & Co., West Side, and save money.

Miss Minnie Wilhite has returned from Hubbard City to her home on Route 6.

Mr. Noah Mills and Miss Frances Pippin of Route 2 were married some time ago.

Clover, redtop, orchard grass, millet and Burt oat seed at Smith & Davis Hardware Co's.

Mr. and Mrs. Chess Warren of Route 1 have returned from a visit with relatives at Bard, Ark.

Most complete line of hay and grain in town. See us before you buy. Phone 79.

BROGDON, WIRT & Co.

Henry & Bohannon of route 6 are running a special closing out sale, which people in that section should take advantage of.

A few months ago six newspapers were printed in Putnam County. Now there is one and a half. The Herald is the one.

Quimby Dyer has sold the plant of the defunct News Reporter to parties in Newport. The printing office there was burned last week.

C. M. Ballard who has had charge of the electric light plant for several years, has gone to Franklin to enter the employ of the interurban car line. G. W. High takes his place here as electrician for the city.

Smith & Davis Hardware Co. sell clover, redtop, orchard grass, millet and Burt oat seed.

The weather has been so warm and spring like for a week that a fellow wants to make garden, and some are putting out early stuff.

Fred Myers has bought the Smith County News at Carthage, it is stated here today, from Sam Stockard, who has run the paper for some time.

Somebody has had my wire fence stretcher for about a year, and I wish they would return it, as I want to use the machine.

T. D. FORD.

M. E. West of Double Springs was in the city today. He is a candidate for justice of the peace to fill a vacancy. The election will be Feb. 25.

The Presbyterian congregation will hold services in their handsome new edifice next Sunday and are to be congratulated upon the completion of their house of worship.

Mrs. John Schneider and Miss Minnie Schneider of Marshall Minn. arrived here Tuesday. Mrs. Schneider is a daughter of Mrs. C. H. Whitney, who died Saturday night.

Five girls wanted to work in overall factory. Must be of good character. Good wages and board $2.00 a week. Apply at factory of Putnam Overall Mfg. Co., Cookeville, Tenn.

Ward R. Case has been appointed the county judge of Fentress County, the office having been recently created by the legislature. Mr. Case is a lawyer at Jamestown.

Flem Farris and Robert McClain have returned from an extended trip through the west. They went to the Pacific coast by New Orleans and the Southern Pacific and came back via Portland, Ore. Spokane, Wash., St. Louis and Nashville.

Now that the financial atmosphere is beginning to clear let the slogan of Cookeville be "Build the College." That done our city will put on new life and continue to grow. Let everybody push for the new school. Make this work the task for 1911.

On next Sunday morning, Feb. 19th, there will be no preaching at the Methodist church as we have been invited to worship with the Presbyterians in their new house. Hope our people will be there. Preaching at the Methodist church Sunday night everybody invited. W. E. Doss, Pastor.

As will be seen by a letter printed this week a meeting will be held at Hilham next Thursday,

Feb. 23, in the interest of a pike from Cookeville to Celina. This is important to Cookeville and a delegation of our business men should attend the meeting. We suggest that Jere Whitson take thematter up and head the Cookeville delegation.

Commits Suicide

Yesterday afternoon Will Bullock, son of D. H. Bullock of Route 6, took a rifle to go hunting. Not returning when expected, search was made and he was found sitting in a fence corner not far from the house, dead—shot through the heart. It appeared that he had shot himself.

Mr. Bullock was a man probably 25 years of age and unmarried. He had been despondent for some time over personal matters.

Route 3

Dear Editor: Here I come with my quarter. Please send your paper to Ella McGee, R. 3.

Health is not very good at this writing. Aunt Mary McGee has had a spell of the grip, but is better.

J. E. Jackson has been very poorly for some time but thinks he is improving some now.

B. D. Welch is on the sick list. Perry Smith and family visited Aunt Sophrona McGhee Sunday.

P. H. Leffew was at J. E. Jackson's Sunday evening.

Marion Anderson and family visited Sam Henley's Sunday.

Come on all you Texas writers, I like to hear from you as I have many kinfolks out there; I have one old uncle and aunt and several cousins who left this country several years ago, who are still remembered by many friends here.

O. F. Wassom visited his uncle J. G. Jaquess, who has been sick is better now.

Owen and Carrie Jaquess visited their sister, Mrs. Byrd Phillips, a few days ago.

John Whitson was here last week buying yearlings. F. E. W.

Baker's X Roads

Married: Mr. Sam Ursey and Miss Missey Seabolt, Rev. H. Ursey officiating.

Mr. Virgle Bussell and Miss Hester Howell, Rev. J. D. Howell officiating.

Sam Myers died Thursday night Jan. 17, after a long spell of consumption. Mr. Myers was a young young man much loved by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and one child, father and mother, five brothers and four sisters, and a host of relatives to mourn his early death. He was about 23 years old. He bore his suffering manfully and expressed his willingness to go, asking his friends to prepare to meet him. The funeral service

HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

was held at Old Zion by Rev. Sam Howell in the presence of a large crowd.

Thomas Flaningin of Cookeville was the guest of Josh Brown Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Matt Goodwin a girl. A. GIRL.

Rocky Point

We have been having some rainy weather for the last few days and the Florida fever is taking the rage all around our place.

J. M. Henry, Isaac Henry and Dennis Officer are on a short visit to Florida.

Misses Maud Randolph, Gracie Clouse, Ellen Jackson and Lula Henry visited W. M. Henry Sunday to bid I. H. good-bye until his return from Florida.

I. H. Henry visited his brother Tilbert Henry Saturday night to be present at the box supper. They had a nice time, sold twelve boxes that brought $20.20.

Scythia Carolina Bohannon was present at the close of Isaac Henry's school Friday. There was a nice crowd and all had a very nice time.

Miss Hallie Welch and P. Randolph were married the other Sunday. Wish them a long and happy life. May they prosper in all their undertaking's for good.

LOHO.

Watch Repairing

I will be in ALGOOD every Saturday afternoon from 12:30 to 3 o'clock to receive watches and jewelry for repairing and to deliver work. May be found at the store of F. R. Meal, where work may be left at any time. Prices reasonable and work guaranteed.

M. H. BORDEN

The Jeweler Cookeville, Tenn.

Subscribe for the Herald, only 25c.